(d) The board of directors (or its appointed designee) will review and act on all applications for membership. If the board of directors determines the application should be rejected, it will record its reasons with the secretary/treasurer. If the board of directors believes that denial of membership to the applicant may become the basis of litigation and a claim of damage by the applicant, it may specify that denial will become effective upon entry in a suit by the State Association for a declaratory judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction of a final judgment declaring the rejection violates no rights of the applicant.

In the event the suspended or expelled member is so certified to have relinquished all form or degree of management control of the firm, the membership of other partners, corporate officers, or other individuals affiliated with the firm will not be affected, and the firm, partnership or corporation may continue to use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® in connection with its business during the period of suspension or until the former member is admitted to membership in the State Association. The foregoing is not intended to preclude a suspended or expelled member from functioning as an employee or independent contractor, providing no management control is exercised. Further, the membership of REALTORS® other than principals who are employed or affiliated as independent contractors with the disciplined member will suspend or terminate during the period of suspension of the disciplined member or until readmission of the disciplined member, or unless connection of the disciplined member with the firm, partnership, or corporation is severed, or management control is relinquished, or unless the REALTOR® Member (non-principal) elects to sever his/her connection with the REALTOR® and affiliate with another REALTOR® member in good standing in the State Association, whichever may apply. If a REALTOR® member other than a sole proprietor in a firm, partner in a partnership, or an officer of a corporation is suspended or expelled, the use of the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® by the firm, partnership or corporation will not be affected.

(i) In any action taken against a REALTOR® member for suspension or expulsion under Section 4(h) hereof, notice of such action will be given to all REALTORS® employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such REALTOR® member and they will be advised that the provisions in Article II, Section 4(h), will apply.

In calculating the dues payable by a Member Board, nonmembers, as defined in the preceding sentence, will not be included in the computation of dues if dues have been paid in another association in the state provided the local association notifies the State Association in writing of the identity of the local association to which dues have been remitted.

Section 2. The annual dues of each designated REALTOR® member actively engaged in the real estate business from areas not within the jurisdiction of a Member Board will be (1) an amount as established by the board of directors plus (2) an amount as established by the board of directors times the number of real estate licensees and licensed or certified appraisers who (a) are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors, or who are otherwise directly or indirectly licensed with such REALTOR® member, and (b) are not REALTOR®, REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® or Institute Affiliate members. The individuals disclosed on such form will not be deemed to be licensed with the REALTOR® filing the form for purposes of this section and will not be included in calculating the annual dues of the designated REALTOR®. Designated REALTORS® will notify the State Association within three (3) days of any change in the status of licensees in a referral firm.

The exemption for any licensee included on the certification form will automatically be revoked upon the individual being engaged in real estate licensed activities (listing, selling, leasing, renting, managing, counseling, or appraising real property) other than referrals, and dues for the current fiscal year will be payable.

Membership dues will be prorated for any licensee included on a certification form submitted to the State Association who during the same calendar year applies for REALTOR® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® membership in the State Association. Member Board dues will also be adjusted for new members enrolled by the State Association who were not previously licensed with a REALTOR® member of the State Association during the current fiscal year. Adjustments for new members will be prorated monthly and be due and payable within thirty (30) days after the new member's enrollment. The Code of Ethics and the Rules and Regulations of the State Association will, in the future, be deemed to be amended and changed whenever said Code of Ethics is amended or changed by the National Association.

Article XI
PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

A local association, prior to referring an ethics complaint or arbitration request for review to the State Association should exhaust all efforts to impanel an impartial tribunal to conduct either the original hearing or the appeal or procedural review. These efforts may include the appointment of trained and knowledgeable members of the association on an ad hoc basis to serve on either a hearing panel or on behalf of the board of directors. If, because of notoriety, etc., the local association cannot impanel an impartial tribunal, the association may refer the matter to the State Association, and the State Association may delegate to another association or a regional enforcement facility, the authority to hear the case on behalf of the State Association. No association or regional enforcement facility, however, may be required to accept this delegation of authority. If no other entity is amenable to conducting the review, the State Association will be responsible for conducting the hearing.

Section 1. Allegations of ethical violations and contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual dispute, as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® and between REALTORS® and their customers or clients may be submitted to an ethics or arbitration panel at the State Association level under the following circumstances:

- (a) Allegations of unethical conduct made against a REALTOR® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® who is directly a member of the State Association and not a member of any local association.
- (b) Allegations of unethical conduct made against a REALTOR® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® in the instance in which the local association, because of size or other valid reason determines that it cannot provide a due process hearing of the matter and petitions the State Association to conduct a hearing.
- (c) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® who are not members of the same association where the matter has been referred to the State Association by both local associations.

- (d) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTORS® who are directly members of the State Association and are not members of any association.
- (e) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between a REALTOR® who does not hold membership in any association, but is directly a member of the State Association, and a REALTOR® who is a member of an association.
- (f) Contractual disputes (and specific non-contractual disputes as defined in Standard of Practice 17-4) between REALTOR® members of the same association where the State Association with good and sufficient reason is unable to arbitrate the controversy. (Explanation: This provision is not designed to relieve a local association of its primary responsibility to resolve differences arising between members of the same association. The section recognizes that in some associations with limited membership, usual arbitration procedures may be impossible.)
- (g) Contractual disputes between a customer or a client and a REALTOR® where the State Association with good and sufficient reason is unable to arbitrate the dispute or the REALTOR® is a direct member of the State Association

Section 2. The responsibility of the State Association and the members of the local associations relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, the arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto will be governed by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®' Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, as from time to time amended, which by this reference is made a part of these Bylaws.

Section 3. If a member (as defined in these bylaws) resigns from the State Association or otherwise causes membership to terminate with an ethics complaint pending, the complaint will be processed until the decision of the State Association with respect to the disposition of the complaint is final by this association (if the respondent does not hold membership in any other association) or by any other association in which the respondent continues to hold membership. If an ethics respondent resigns or otherwise causes membership in all boards to terminate before an ethics complaint is filed alleging unethical conduct occurred while the respondent was a REALTOR®, the complaint, once filed, will be processed until the decision of the State Association with respect to disposition of the complaint is final. In any instance where an ethics hearing is held after an ethics respondent's resignation or membership termination, any discipline ratified by the Board of Directors will be held in abeyance until the respondent rejoins an association of REALTORS®.

Section 4. New Member Code of Ethics Orientation. Applicants for REALTOR® and REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® membership will complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics as established by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® of not less than two (2) hours and thirty (30) minutes of instructional time. This requirement does not apply to applicants who have completed comparable orientation in another association, provided membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one year or less.

Failure to satisfy this requirement within sixty (60) days of the date of application will result in denial of the membership application.

Section 5. REALTOR® Code of Ethics Training. Effective January 1, 2019, through December 31, 2021, and for successive three year periods thereafter, each REALTOR® member of the State Association (with the exception of REALTOR® members granted REALTOR® Emeritus status by the National Association) will be required to complete ethics training of not less than two (2) hours and thirty (30) minutes of instructional time. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed a course of instruction conducted by this or another REALTOR® association, the State Association of REALTORS®, or the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, which meets the learning objectives and minimum criteria established by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® from time to time. REALTOR® members who have completed training as a requirement of membership in another association and REALTOR® members who have completed the New Member Code of Ethics Orientation during any three-year cycle will not be required to complete additional ethics training until a new three-year cycle commences.

Failure to satisfy the required periodic ethics training will be considered a violation of a membership duty. Failure to meet the requirement in any three-year cycle will result in suspension of membership for the first two months (January and February) of the year following the end of any three-year cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever occurs sooner. On March 1 of that year, the membership of a member who is still suspended as of that date will be automatically terminated.
